Committees Appointed to Arrange for Exhibits at Jamestown Exposition.

terday morning at 11 o'clock in the chapel of the Presbyterian Publishing e, in this city, with Rev. Dr. Witherspoon as moderator, and William S. Campbell as tempe-

Rev. William S. Campbell as tem normy clerk.

There were present Revs. Jere Witherspoon, D. D., T. R. English, D. D., Russell Cevil, D. D., J. Calvin Stewart, D. D., R. B. Engleston, D. K. Walthall, William S. Campbell, Tilden Schrer, J. S. Foster, D. D., W. Mcc. White, D. D., Ruling Elder Robert Whittet, Sr., and Licentiate Michael Sayad.

Mr. Sayad made a statement in regard to his work in Persia, and asked that the presbytry make some arrangement by which to provide for his support, that he might return to his native land to continue preaching the gospel to his countrymen. After a very full discussion of the subject, the following paper was adopted:

mative land to continue preaching the gospet to his countrymen. After a very full discussion of the subject, the following paper was adopted:

"Whereas, it appears to be unwise and inconsistent with the settled policy of our church for two presbytery to establish or encourage independent missions in foreign countries; therefore, touching the relation of the presbytery to Licentiate M. Sayad, be it.

"Resolved, That the presbytery gages to raise the sum of $200 to defray the expenses of Licentiate Sayad in returning to Fersia, and that we recommend to him to transfer his ecclesiastical relation to the Presbytery of Urumlah, and to ask for mission work under the jurisdiction of that body."

The members of the presbytery expersed themselves as anxious to do all they can for Mr. Sayad, but it did not seem practicable to take any further steps than this. The difficulty in the case is owing to the fact that the presbytery has ne right to catablish foreign missions. The Foreign Mission Committee of the Southern Presbyterian Church has a station there already, and according to an agreement between these two churches neither one will erect a mission at a Toint whre the other has one already.

On Building—Rev. Dr. F. T. McFaden and Rev. R. B. Eggleston.

An effort is being made to have a threefold exhibit, showing the history and present condition of the Presbyterian Church in this country. It will show the history and growth of the Presbyterian (Church in this country: the work and condition of the Presbyterian educational institutions, and the work done by the church in the publication of books and church and Sunday-school literature.

The committees are already at work, under the efficient leadership of the general chairman, Rev. E. T. Wellford, of Newport News, and it is conidently expected that they will be successful in providing a splendid exhibit.

Dr. Blackwell Urges Importance of Matter Upon Ministers.

Rev. Dr. C. S. Blackwell, of Norfolk, was present at the meeting of the Baptist Ministers' Conference yesterday, and urged upon the pastors of Richmond the necessity of preparing for a Baptist exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition. The plane is to have a Baptist bulleing, at a cost of $5,000, and a large exhibit from the Publication Society and Baptist educational institutions of the State, in addition to the display already provided for in the history building.

The building will be known as the Reger Williams Memorial, and will be open to the public as a place of rest and refreshment. It will be finished by May 23d, when the Northern Baptists and Southern Baptists, having just completed their respective conventions in Washington and Richmond, will ment at the exposition for Baptist Day.

Dr. Blackwell stated that half the required sum would probably be raised by the Norfolk churches. He requested that special invitation fresheat Autoritation and Professor Charles W. Kent, of the University, and also Mr. Arthur K. Davis, representing a member of the committee who was unable to attend. The report of this committee to the association will consist chiefly of the tentative constitution to be submitted, but it is understood that a recommendation will be made suggesting some effort at co-ordination of standards and proposing a measure tending in that direction. The adoption of the measure by the association should not, by the intention of the committee, involve anything at all compelling or even obligatory upon the schools in the association, but would offer great possibilities of helpfulness to such schools as are desirous of having standards more nearly alike and more closely in touch The Clay Ward Actives have moved their meeting-place from Belvidere Hall to Monroe Hall, opposite Mouroe Square, on Main Street. The change was made because the former hall is in another ward.

BRISTOL, VA., February 18.—A report is current he be to-day that George L. Carter, at present president of the south and Western Railway, will be offered the presidency of the Seaboard Air Line Railway to succeed the late Aifred Walter. Mr. Carter was seen to-night regarding the report, but was reticent. It is known, however, that his name has been significantly mentioned in this connection, and because of his executive ability in handling the affairs of big concerns and his present alliance with Seaboard Air Line interests, his election to presidency of the road would create no surprise here.

A COAT-OF-ARMS.

How One May Be Acquired for a Consideration in England.

The practice of granting arms is still in vogue in England, Ireland, Scotland, Austria, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Germany etc., and at times the Pope, as sovereign pontiff, exercises the power.

Indeed, it is by patent or grant alone for the presidency of the Scaboard Air Line. They are First Vice-President W. A. Garrett, John Tatiock, president of the Washington Life Insurance Company, and George L. Carter, of Bristol, Va. Scaboard directors will meet February 27th for the purpost of electing a successor to the late President Alfred Walter, VERY LIKELY GARRETT.

Presidency of Scaboard Lies Between Him and George L. Carter, ispecial to The Times-Dispatch. NORFOLK, VA. February 18.—In well-informed circles here it is stated to-night that the succession to the presidency of the Scaboard Air Line Rallway in consequence of Walters's death will be one of two men; viz., George L. Carter, president of the South and Western Rallway, with headquarters at Johnson City, Tenn., and W. A. Garrett, now first vice-president and general manager of the system, with headquarters at Norfolk. It is thought the more likely here that Garrett, will be the man. It is expected that the final selection will be made known in a few days.

The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful beyond precedent, and the tearful crowd of every rank and condition, the gallery being crowded with negroes, that thronged the church spoke eloquently of the strong and loving hold that the deceased had on the hearts of his people.

In obedience to the express wishes of Captain Edmunds, relterated to his wife during his last sickness, no public meeting of the bar in his memory was held, but the consent of his family was gained to allow a fitting memorial of his life and character to be spread upon the records of the court. He sleeps beside his old friend, Judge John W.
